
THE CENTRAL-KOLLEG WORKSHOP 1

"CULTURAL INTERACTIONS AMONG CENTRAL EUROPEAN CAPITAL CITIES: SCHOOL SYSTEMS IN BERLIN, BUDAPEST, PRAGUE, VIENNA AND WARSAW (18-21TH CENTURY)."

Date

4. to 6. September 2017

Place

Humboldt University Berlin
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences
Institute of Education Studies
History of Education
Geschwister-Scholl-Straße 7, Berlin
Room 2.19

Workshop Program

Date	Time	Content
4. September	15:00 - 18:00	Self-introduction of participants (each research group)
		Welcome Keynote Lecture by Prof. Marcelo Caruso
		(short break)
		Discussion of the literature (please see the attachments)
		Dinner
5. September	10:00 - 12:00	History of Three Capital Cities and their School Systems (ca. 1700 - 2017)
		ca. 30 min. for each group
	12:00 - 13:30	lunch
	13:30 - 15:00	Panel Discussion (Mr. Caruso, Mr. Hlinica, Mr. Németh): Capital cities and their education

Date	Time	Content
	15:00 - 15:30	break
	15:30 - 17:00	Open Discussion to find common research topics
		Dinner
6. September	11:00 - 14:00 (or 10:00 to 13:00)	Shaping up common research questions Setting research questions of each group Making To-Do List Closing Discussion: Aims of and Expectations for the Second Workshop

Literature (general)

1. Eszter Gantner and Heidi Hein-Kircher (2017). "Emerging Cities": Knowledge and Urbanization in Europe's Borderlands 1880-1945—Introduction. Journal of Urban History, 43(4) 575–586.
2. Edith Ennen, „Funktions- und Bedeutungswandel der ‚Hauptstadt‘ vom Mittelalter zur Moderne“ in: Hauptstädte im europäischen Nationalstaaten, ed. by Theodor Schieder & Gerhard Brunn. München, Wien: Oldenbourg, 1983, 153-164.

Literature (case studies)

1. All articles from Schieder & Brunn: Hauptstädte im europäischen Nationalstaaten (1983).
 - a) Gerhard Brunn, „Die deutsche Einigungsbewegung und der Aufstieg Berlins zur deutschen Hauptstadt“ (15-34).
 - b) Stefan Kieniewicz, „Warschau als Hauptstadt der neuzeitlichen polnischen Nation“ (87-102).
 - c) Adam Wandruszka, „Wien – Hauptstadt eines Großreiches und eines Kleinstaats“ (113-120).
 - d) Horst Haselsteiner, „Budapest als Hauptstadt des ungarischen Reichsteiles der Habsburgermonarchie“ (121-134).
 2. Tara Zahra, "Reclaiming Children for the Nation: Germanization, National Ascription and Democracy in the Bohemian Lands, 1900–1945." Central European History 37 (Dec. 2004): 499–541.
-